POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position : Administrative Assistant	Department : Lakota Studies
Supervisor : Department Chairperson/Director	Contract : 12 months/Hourly/Full-Time

Job Summary:

This role will provide overall administrative support for the Lakota Studies Department of the Sinte Gleska University in its entirety.

The Lakota Studies Department was established in the 1970's. The Lakota Studies Department plays a support role in all other university Academic Programs. It is the intention to provide a bi-cultural perspective and promote sensitivity to all academic programs offered at the University. This is a very unique and powerful dynamic provided by the Lakota Studies Department.

A goal of this department is related to the reservation community at large: to extend non-academic services to the Rosebud Sioux Tribe (Sicangu Lakota Oyate) and its tribal membership. These services include offering expertise in Lakota Culture and advocating for the integrity of traditional Lakota values and heritage. The department also takes a very active role in cultural protection, preservation and restoration.

The most important role of the Lakota Studies Department within the institution is that it is the hub or center of Sinte Gleska University. This is a position of leadership and responsibility to all. The department strives to show by example that Lakota values are not merely talked about in the classroom, but are integrated into daily actions. It is the belief of the department that Lakota values and beliefs have much to offer the world today and proves a vision to follow into the future.
